Amondo, Son of the Baobab

Play by Hélène Ducharme Illustrations by Judith Gueyfier
Performances by Philippe Racine, Patrick Emmanuel Abellard, Widemir Normil, Sharon James, Aboulaye Koné and Nathalie Cora

AFRICA / COMMUNITY / HERITAGE / SELF-DISCOVERY

A tale passed down from generation to generation about a boy's heroic quest to save his village.

In West Africa, a magnificent baobab presides over a village beset with a terrible drought. Young Amondo, known as "The One Who Unites", is the only person who can restore hope to the villagers by freeing the water from the spell cast by the sun. But in order to succeed, he must complete four difficult tasks...

The play, followed by seven songs in Bambara, transports us to the extraordinary world of African folklore, to a time when the moon, trees and animals spoke to humankind.

Dora Award-winning play that has been performed throughout the world over 800 times!

Teaching guide available online at www.theseecretmountain.com/resources.

Hélène Ducharme is a playwright, director, actress and puppeteer, and has been artistic director of the company Théâtre Motus for the past 25 years. Judith Gueyfier has illustrated more than 30 picture books including "Chandra's Magic Light", published by Barefoot Books.

CLASSICAL

The Piano

Story and illustrations by Joaquin Camp

🎵 MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS / EMOTIONS / CREATIVITY / FAMILY

Music can give life to anything and everything.

That's exactly what happens when a boy and girl play their brand new piano for the first time. As they take turns tapping keys, the children discover that even the simplest melody can stir up a symphony of sensations.

This playful tale invites children to explore how music makes them feel. Hear how sounds attune to emotions. See how music colours the imagination. From synesthesia to onomatopoeia, these musical sketches show that learning big words and even bigger ideas can be as simple as PLINK, PLANK, PLONK.

SING ALONG

I Know an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Fly

Songs by Alan Mills Illustrations by PisHier Performances by Thomas Hellman and Émilie Clepper

🎵 FOLK SONGS / ALPHABET / COUNTING / SEASONS / HUMOUR

A fresh rendition of a classic children's tune followed by a buffet of silly sing-along songs.

Get to know a quirky old lady who swallows a heap of animals—from a dog, cat, bird and spider to that infamous little fly. The children's classic sets the table for several timeless folk tunes, written over 50 years ago. Tongue-in-cheek and smart at heart, this buffet of singalong alphabet, counting and rhyming songs is jaw-droppingly silly as it is devourable.

Alan Mills was a folksinger, writer, and actor who released several albums on Folkways Records. His performance at the 1960 Newport Folk Festival was preserved on a Vanguard recording. He also found lasting success as a singer with the CBC radio show Folk Songs for Young Folk, which ran from 1947-59. He was made a Member of the Order of Canada in 1974.
