Pillow Talk
Real People, Real Stories, Real Awkward: An Awfully Hilarious Anthology
Edited by Angelina Jimenez & Heather Hendrie

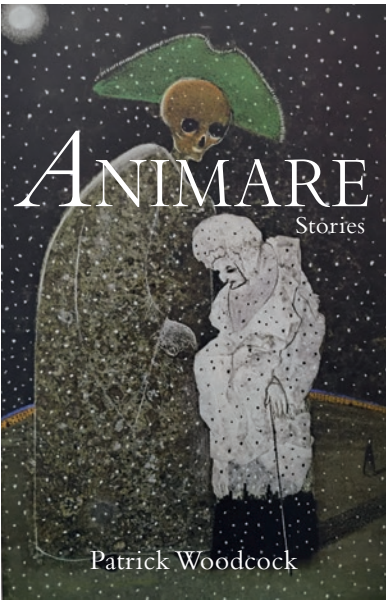

Smashing stigma with story, this Awfully Hilarious Book features writers who share their sexual experiences with humour and candour. Authors of all ages, cultures, orientations and identities tackle subjects ranging from asexuality to masturbation to polyamory. Disappointing and humiliating encounters are interlaced with instances of joy and self-discovery in a book that validates all manifestations of desire.

Patrick Woodcock is the author of ten books of poetry that have been published in fourteen languages. Always Die Before Your Mother was shortlisted for Canada's ReLit award in 2010 and reached the number one spot on The Globe & Mail's bestseller list. You can't bury them all was shortlisted for the JM Abraham Poetry Award (2017). An inveterate traveller, he is currently based in Iqaluit, Nunavut.

Animare Stories
by Patrick Woodcock

Acclaimed poet Patrick Woodcock grants breath and memory to objects he has encountered during more than thirty years as a migrant writer. In tales that move between laughter and rage, tenderness and defiance, he allows them to speak of what he has seen and felt in geographies and histories that range from Iqaluit, Nunavut, to Poland, Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Kurdish North of Iraq and beyond. Whether a boat, a baby carriage, a strip of bark, or a stone, each narrator bears witness to the quiet beauty and enduring sorrow that mark the human world. Beneath them all runs a single current—a profound love of life.

Rosie & Raven
An Interactive Animated Fairy Tale
by Kayla Silber

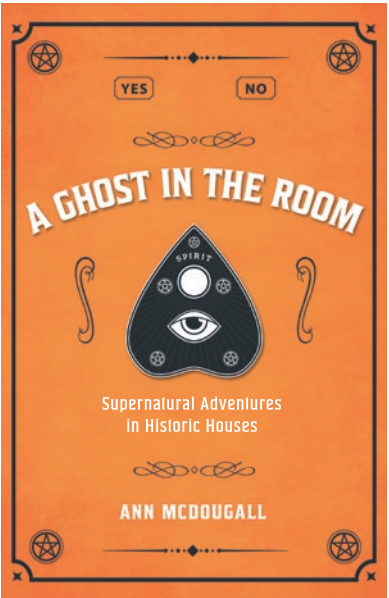

Moonbeam Children's Book Award Gold Medalist 2025

Oprah's Favorite Things 2025

Rosie & Raven is redefining what a children's book can be by blending art, music, and technology into a one-of-a-kind interactive experience that captivates readers of all ages. This beautifully illustrated hardcover can be enjoyed as a traditional storybook, but when viewed through a smartphone or tablet, the pages come alive with animation and original songs sung by the author – like stepping into a storybook musical right from the page.

After earning a BA in fine art from the University of Maryland and working as a creative director, she discovered augmented reality. That discovery led her to create a unique body of work that blends the physical and digital worlds. She lives in Los Angeles, California.

A Ghost in the Room
Supernatural Adventures in Canadian Historic Houses
by Ann McDougall

"Is this place haunted?" Staff at historic house museums are asked about ghosts on a daily basis, and these small museums strive to satisfy the public's appetite for the occult with ghost walks, paranormal investigations, seance recreations and other supernatural programs. But what is it about historic spaces that sparks our interest in connecting with the other side? Author Ann McDougall explores their tales of the supernatural and investigates our enduring desire to communicate with the dead.
